ACCOMMODATION

The Community Standards Assistant is not required to live in residence to hold this position. If the Community Standards Assistant choose to live in residence they are required to complete and submit an application to live in residence for the upcoming academic year. They are obligated to pay the required fees for the accommodation. Whether living on or off campus, as an employee of Student Housing Services, the Community Standards Assistant is expected to be aware of their impact as role models for students and other staff members and demonstrate responsible behaviour as a member of the Guelph community.

OUTSIDE EMPLOYMENT COMMENTS

Due to the time commitment required by this position, it is advised that this person discuss any other extracurricular activities/employment with the Residence Behaviour and Wellness Manager.

STATEMENT OF UNDERSTANDING

The Community Standards Assistant must abide by the contract given to them once hired, indicating that they have read their Job Description and understand the duties, employment dates and expectations as set out by the Residence Behaviour and Wellness Manager, and those discussed during weekly meetings and training, and those documented in the Residence Community Living Standards and other Student Housing Services Policies.

STATEMENT OF DECLARATION

The health and safety of students, staff, and guests in the residence is a paramount concern for Student Housing Services (SHS). To provide such an environment, SHS employs various staff (e.g., Residence Life Staff [RLS], Guest Table Staff, Duty Staff, etc.) who demonstrate, through selection and performance management measures, superior capacity (a) as a role model, through compliance with expectations (i.e., Residence Community Living Standards [RCLS], Job Description, RLS Code of Conduct, and Employment Contract); and (b) to make independent decisions as a para-counselor to students in need and first-responder in crisis situations (in applicable positions).

In order to ensure quality applicants, SHS will review the residence history of all applicants, which includes, but is not limited to behavioural, conduct, and employment (some positions also must meet an academic standard). Applicants whose non-academic misconduct (i.e. violation of RCLS) or employment history are deemed to be above the acceptable threshold will not be invited to the interview phase. An applicant's behavioural history (i.e. personal wellness, mental health) is reviewed by a non-hiring manager at point of offer. Where there is a bonafide concern with an individual's behavioural history (based on the requirements of the job) an a) offer of employment will be conditional upon the applicant meeting specified expectations that ameliorate the concerns or b) an offer will not be made. Students on Residence Probation are ineligible to apply for SHS staff positions.
