Position Summary

Cluster Leaders are senior students who are expected to act as mentors and offer support to students living in their assigned community. They provide a broad range of academic programming for their community. These activities are often carried out with the assistance of other campus agencies and serve to assist in students’ academic endeavours. Cluster Leaders are expected to develop quality working relationships with their colleagues. Cluster Leaders are expected to demonstrate a commitment to Residence Life by working to create a sense of community that contributes to individual growth and development. The size and make-up of each Residence Life Staff team varies based on the unique characteristics of each building community. As such, the specific duties of a Cluster Leader may vary slightly on different teams.

Responsibilities

A. Community Building and Support

- Live in the assigned Residence Hall and serve as a resource to the students in your area as well as to the building as a whole.
- Establish, develop and maintain an open relationship with each member of your community, regularly interacting with each resident. Be alert to the academic needs of new students.
- Maintain a collaborative relationship with the Residence Assistant(s) in your community, as well as the other RLS members in the building as a whole.
- Be available to residents regularly, particularly in the evenings and on weekends and provide information to them as to when you will be available.
- Counsel students on academic issues as expertise permits. Refer to appropriate resources as needed.
- Promote academics and lifestyle balance in the Residence.
- Be familiar with academic and personal services on campus and, utilize and refer students as required, with an understanding of ones own personal limits.
- Be an effective peer helper to students as appropriate and within your own personal limits.
- Encourage and support residents with their involvement with activities and on campus that support learning.
- Hold regular meetings with your cluster to address academic and transition issues (unless otherwise specified by the Manager, ALC).
- CLs are expected to assist with lower-impact conflicts (e.g., noise complaints) and student stressors (e.g., missed exams, poor grades, academic decisions). CLs are required to report and assist in addressing lower-impact violations (e.g., noise violations) of the Residence Community Living Standards among the community at all times. CLs may encounter students in distress and are expected to call for assistance or provide referral to other resources. Training is provided regarding protocols for seeking assistance. In these instances, CLs are expected to follow protocols for seeking assistance.

B. Team Development

- Attend weekly staff meetings.
- Attend bi-weekly check-in meetings with a senior staff member of the ALC team.
- Participate in team socials and teambuilding.
- Encourage idea sharing, team building and a positive work environment among team-mates.
C. PROGRAMMING
- Develop, market, and implement programs within a specific academic program area, including (subject to Manager, ALC review):
  - Facilitate a minimum of 7 study sessions for at least 2 core courses each semester
  - Implement 1 student-faculty program involving instructors, program counsellors, or librarians each semester
  - Coordinate 2 discipline-specific programs per semester
  - Coordinate at least one community program with Community RA per semester, focused on areas related to academic success (e.g., wellness, mental health, etc.)
  - Create 2 discipline-specific passive academic programs per term
  - Monitor at least 3 two-hour shifts in an Academic Drop-in Centre, per semester
  - Monitor 2 exam period study centers
  - In coordination with the ALC team, contribute to and maintain a shared programming calendar within the Academic Enrichment Workbook; maintain a calendar of academic programming happening on campus and in your community, and disseminate campus-partner information regularly
  - Support hall and Campus-Wide programs throughout the course of the year
  - Facilitate and participate in new student orientation activities
  - Practice risk management when planning and implementing programmes

D. COMMUNICATION & ADMINISTRATION
- Read and familiarize yourself with any publications and training material distributed by SHS.
- Communicate and help residents understand relevant academic policies and procedures, schedule of dates, and sources of academic assistance.
- Communicate regularly with the Manager, ALC through weekly logs, meetings, drop-ins, email, voicemail and other documentation as required.
- Communicate regularly with the Residence Assistants and Academic Programmers in order to share information and collaborate.
- Use online resources through the RLS CourseLink page such as StarRez software to properly and promptly document incidents, and online logs to record programmes.
- Ensure privacy is maintained with respect to residents’ behaviour and incidents occurring in residence.

E. ADDITIONAL DUTIES
- Additional duties as assigned by the Manager, ALC or designate

STATEMENT OF DECLARATION
The health and safety of students, staff, and guests in the residence is a paramount concern for Student Housing Services (SHS). To provide such an environment, SHS employs various staff (e.g., Residence Life Staff [RLS], Guest Table Staff, Duty Staff, etc.) who demonstrate, through selection and performance management measures, superior capacity (a) as a role model, through compliance with expectations (i.e., Residence Community Living Standards [RCLS], Job Description, RLS Code of Conduct, and Employment Contract); and (b) to make independent decisions as a para-counselor to students in need and first-responder in crisis situations (in applicable positions).

In order to ensure quality applicants, SHS will review the residence history of all applicants, which includes, but is not limited to behavioural, conduct, and employment (some positions also must meet an academic standard). Applicants whose non-academic misconduct (i.e. violation of RCLS) or employment history are deemed to be above the acceptable threshold will not be invited to the interview phrase. An applicant’s behavioural history (i.e. personal wellness, mental health) is reviewed by a non-hiring manager at point of offer. Where there is a bonafide concern with an individual’s behavioural history (based on the requirements of the job) an a) offer of employment will be conditional upon the applicant meeting specified expectations that ameliorate the concerns or b) an offer will not be made. Students on Residence Probation are ineligible to apply for SHS staff positions.
